In his lecture he stressed the need of modern education and the chances of applying it throughout life. The opening scripture and prayer was by the Rev. J. H. Freeman, Supt. W. J. John, a local boy, is also a Murray State graduate. Mrs. Ralph Churchill is a new teacher in the Junior High department and Miss Mary Lou Outland is in charge of the fifth grade. With the exception of these new faces the old faculty was in charge of their various grades and departments.

The smaller children and their parents were dismissed to their respective grades immediately following the chapel program to complete their organization and beginning of school. Principal Ed Filbeck of the high school, made announcements of the high school schedule and organization. In the remaining time of the morning classification and schedule of all students was completed and in the afternoon the whole day's program of classes was run through with to acquaint the students with their classes, teachers and schedule. Regular class work began Tuesday morning at 8:30 o'clock.

Supt. W. J. Caplinger states that there are now 600 enrolled in the city system, in the Training School, 364, and in the colored system of the city, 176.

The colored schools of Murray also began their work for 1936-37, Monday morning, at their new building. With 176 enrolling in school and the biggest adult attendance at the opening, Superintendent Caplinger feels that this unit of the school system will have an excellent year.

TAX EXEMPTION FOR POOL IS HIT

Attorney-General of Kentucky Hits County's Right to Exempt Leaf

FRANKFORT, Ky., Sept. 16.—Calloway County's right to exempt its taxation tobacco of the W. J. Dark Fired Tobacco Growers' Association which is stored in hoghead quantities in Graves and McCracken Counties was questioned today in a brief prepared by the Attorney General.

The association in 1934 listed all of its tobacco, wherever owned, in Calloway County. Then in July, 1935, the Calloway County Court granted the association an exemption from the tax. By that method, the Attorney General's brief said, the association avoided taxes on property it said was worth $244,240.

The brief said that in 1934 the Association learned that a Tennessee tobacco growers' association, similar to the Kentucky organization, was escaping taxation on its tobacco. Then the Kentucky Association set out to escape taxation, the brief said, and proceeded to list all tobacco in storage as if it were subject to taxation in Calloway County, and then was given a court order exonerating it from all the tax.

L. L. Veal, general manager of the association, is in Washington on business for the body and could not be reached for a statement.

Prof. A. Graham has been elected head of the agriculture department, succeeding the late Prof. J. S. Pullen. President Richmond is at work on a plan to secure a farm for the college which will afford more students an opportunity to secure part-time employment.

The only concrete highway in Calloway County has been completed across and beside the college campus. This "College Avenue" extends north along the east side of the campus beside the athletic field, thence west to Five Points where it joins West College Avenue, thus completing the "College Loop".

As a part of the comprehensive program to be offered Murray enrollees, a 9-game schedule has been worked for the Murray Throughbred this fall. The opening is a clash with Georgetown here September at night in the brilliantly lighted new stadium.

Social Life Attractive

The social life of the campus is varied and wholesome, including receptions, parties, teas, banquets, club meetings, proms, and celebrations. There are over 20 clubs of various kinds to meet the needs of the different members.

Athletics, debating, music, journalism, and kindred fields afford ample opportunities for the well-rounded training of Murray students. Religious development is not overlooked at Murray. Throughbred and Christian Association meetings are arranged for the safeguarding of the moral and spiritual standards to the students.

A feature of the Murray campus is the democratic spirit that prevails. Cliques and factions are practically non-existent, and the spirit of "good fellowship" is everywhere evident. A special effort is put forth by the administration to assist the newcomer in becoming acquainted with his new environment. The faculty members are always approachable and are ever willing to advise with the students on academic or campus problems.

The various clubs and civic organizations have appointed committees to cooperate with the college in finding homes with part-time employment for needy students.

We are speeding along very rapidly into our third month, but we must stop to praise the great interest which is being shown in our school, both by parents and pupils.

At the close of last month's work several mothers and neighbors visited with us on Friday afternoon. The children were enthusiastic in entertaining with a program of their accomplishments in school work. This was given in the form of a moving picture show.

The seventh grade gave a unit in Science which they had worked out by free-hand drawing and clippings. A ten-foot film, showing views from Healthland; the fourth grade took us to the land of the Tigris-Euphrates valley, where we saw the life and customs of people in the cities of Bagdad, Basra and other points of interest along the route to the Persian Gulf. A. Robbins Purchases Newspaper in Virginia

A Robbins, who sold the Hickman Courier last December after being its editor and publisher for ten years, has bought the Hopewell, Virginia News, it has been announced and will immediately assume publication of the paper.

Mr. Robbins made an exemplary record on the Courier, not only in his professional field but also in community activity. He won many Journalism prizes, both state and national, with the Courier and served as president of the Kentucky Press Association as well as head of the West Kentucky Press Association for many years.

Hopewell is an industrial city of some 14,000 people, situated on the James River, between Richmond and Norfolk, in the famous tide-water section of Virginia that is so filled with early Colonial history. The News is the only newspaper in Hopewell and was purchased by Mr. Robbins from Will M. Hundley, who will retire from journalism.

The seventh grade has planted two pans of peas and beans, and they are keeping one pan turned with the other one inert to see what effect the sun has on this project.

The little children have obtained some new reading and coloring books.

Salem's softball team met the Coldwater boys. Salem was defeated in the tilt.

Miss Ola Mae Farmer, attendance officer, visited us last week. She urged that we come to school every day. We are going to try to attain a nice attendance record. We hope that she will return soon.

Visitors for the past week were Fern Crouch, Louise Manning, Ruby Darnell, Jimmie Manning, Ralph Crouch and Charles Jones.

The honor roll for this month is as follows:
First grade: Billy Stone, Helen Cooper.

Second grade: Martha Jo Fain, Charles Ed Rogers, Harry Ed Rogers, Billy Camp Kelley, Rex Stone, Linith Rogers.

Third grade: Emma Lee Manning, Mary Stone, Kenneth Manning.

Fourth grade: Velma Rogers, Louise Sheridan.

Fifth grade: Sue Crouch, Frances Rogers, Rex Cooper.

Sixth grade: Reba Nell Rogers, May Ruth Cooper, Bur Nell Sheridan, James Rogers, Brent Manning.

RALPH'S RANGLES

Jess Owens truly added "color" to the Olympic contests.

The trouble is: Murray State has turned out so many winning athletes since about 1927 that fans of this section shake their heads in despair when two or three games are lost.

In the "good old" days when a season's average of 50 per cent was accomplished all was well.

"We cordially welcome the young women of Murray State College to the Regal Dress Shop in the National Hotel Building," said Mrs. G. B. Scott, owner, in commenting upon the great value of the institution not only to the city of Murray but to Calloway county and all Western Kentucky.

The Regal Dress Shop is the shop of style without extravagance, Mrs. Scott said, and features nationally known women's garments at popular prices.

The Regal Dress Shop has a very modern and attractive home in the National Hotel on Main Street and features Betty Rose Coats, Princess Coats and Nelly Don Dresses. It is also the home of the famous Rollins line of hosiery and lingerie, and Snyder and Bradley knits.

Mrs. Scott is displaying a complete and charming selection of the new fall styles.

Peculiar things are happening out at the Thoroughbred race track during the training period. Injuries are popping up here and there in routine work rather than in scrimmage. Usually it's the latter that causes so much grief.

The Stewarts looked father convincing Monday afternoon in a short scrimmage period. The line charged well and took care of its opposition after the holes were opened. Nunn, Henderson, Miller, Fowler, Jasper, McRaven, and Mitchell are battling for back positions. Nunn and Miller led the way in Monday's affair.

Yarbrough hasn't a decent chance during the pre-season training period due to a knee injury. His estimation of his punting days are over considering the type of injury he possesses.

There seems to be no cinched positions as yet, but Gunter seems to have the edge at the center post; Organ and Cochran are climbing fast at the guard spots; Herndon and Jones are in battles with Delbert, Allison, and Bland for end posts. With the type of present day play being used too many ends can't be had; at the tackle position, it is possible that Cook is cutting his name for one spot while Land and Jellico are putting on a private tussle for the other brute crushing sector.

Coach Ty Holland's Tigers are opening the season Friday night when they meet the Greenfield Team. High eleven.

With the Province brothers as the backbone of the line and Lassiter filling the wide gap at center, the forward wall is taking on great possibilities. Ty had an excellent line last year that proved to be a surprise to the opposition.

The backfield combination to be used this season is not yet known. The illness of McNutt, which left the fullback position open, has put a few more frowns on Ty's face and the spot is yet undilled. Probably Humphreys, Phil Cutchin, B. C. Albritten and Buchanan will catch the first call Friday night. When Buchanan gets under way with a few more games under his belt he will be up at the front line when the whistle blows.

If the temperature remains up, the fracas Friday night will be a sweat box. However the cooling atmosphere of the evening hours will be more appreciated than the mid-afternoon sun.

Murray High Tigers Open Season With Greenfield Here Friday Nite

Murray High School Tigers swing into action tomorrow night, Friday, September 18, at 7:30 o'clock, against the strong Greenfield, Tenn., eleven. Although school has been in session only one week, the Tigers, and Coach Holland, have been diligently practicing and getting into shape for this opener since September 1.

This is the first time for the Tigers to take on the Greenfield team. And for the opening game, will be a very stiff affair. The game will be played under the lights of the high school field. Even without rain before the game, the evening air will aid in cooling off the afternoon's heat waves before the game. It will be plenty warm at that for the participants of the game.

In the season's practice, Coach Ty Holland has had his squad working hard for positions as no one man had a cinch of being one of the first eleven to trot out in the opening game. The following will be seen in action when the initial whistle is blown for the first kick off tomorrow night: at left end, Martin Province; left tackle, Oakley; left guard, Capt. Milburn Province; laster will be at center, and on the right side of the line will be: Hule at guard, Crider at tackle, and Wells at end. The backfield will be composed of Phil Cutchin at quarter, B. C. Allbritten and Humphries at halfback positions, and Buchanan at full.

With a few games under the experienced Tigers' belts, Coach

Holland will have an excellent aggregation. The weight of the Tigers is somewhat heavier than of past years. A heavy line of husky fellows should give and dish out plenty of trouble for the opposing teams of the season.

Besides the opener with Greenfield tomorrow night, the Tigers have the following schedule:

Sept. 24, Clay here, night game.

Oct. 2, Metropolis there, night game.

Oct. 7, Mayfield here, night game.

Oct. 16, Bowling Green, here, night game.

Oct. 23, Marion, there.

Oct. 30, Fulton, there.

Nov. 6, Morganfield there.

Nov. 13, Princeton, here.

Nov. 20, Paris, Tenn., there.

Rev. Havens Plans Interesting Series

The Rev. A. V. Havens, pastor of the First Christian Church, has announced an interesting series of ten sermons entitled "Ten Nights in God's House," with them the theme of "The Healing Gospel."

The series will start Sunday night, October 4, and will continue each Sunday evening through Sunday night, December 6.

Following is the schedule of the sermons as announced by Rev. Havens:

Oct. 4—The Healing Gospel to the Sick.

Oct. 11—The Healing Gospel to the Nervous.

Oct. 18—The Healing Gospel to the Fearful.

October 25—The Healing Gospel to the Worried.

Nov. 1—The Healing Gospel to the Handicapped.

November 8—The Healing Gospel to the Sorrowing.

Nov. 15—The Healing Gospel to the Tempted.

Nov. 22—The Healing Gospel to the Sinner.

Nov. 29—The Healing Gospel to the Unhappy.

Dec. 6—The Healing Gospel in The Return to Religion.

Haven To Re-Preach 'The Eastern Window'

"The Eastern Window" will be the request sermon of A. V. Havens, minister of the First Christian Church, at the morning worship service, next Sunday, in response to the insistent requests of many who did not get to hear the sermon but heard about it after it was first delivered; and others who heard the sermon and wish to hear it again.

In agreeing to deliver this sermon again, Mr. Havens said, "When folks first began to suggest that I preach 'The Eastern Window,' again, I thought they were just speaking pleasantries and did not give much consideration to it. However, as the requests continued to come in, I began to realize they were more than pleasantries. Finally when one of our religious education committees made the request I decided to deliver the sermon again."

"This sermon," Mr. Havens said, "seeks to present, in an interesting way, a certain philosophy of life." The service will begin at 10:45 Sunday morning. "A Fighting Farmer," will be the sermon subject at the Sunday night church service which will begin at 7:30. The Sunday School will begin at 9:30, Sunday morning, under the direction of W. B. Moser, superintendent.

The Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor will meet at 6:30, Sunday evening, with Mrs. George Hart as adult counselor. This meeting will be for all young people of college and high school age.

Next Wednesday night, instead of the regular mid-week meeting, a dinner will be served for the teachers and officers of the Sunday School, and their wives and husbands.

Pine Bluff Bunches Hits to Top Hardin

The "thirteenth" day of September meant nothing to the Pine Bluff baseball outfit, as they proceeded to bunch hits in the second, third, fourth and fifth innings to ring up a total of 6 plate tallies while holding the fast Hardin out to a pair of runs on scattered hits.

Lefty Weakas on the mound for the Bluff, allowed six safe blows but was never in danger after the third frame when Hardin scored her two runs.

The lineup follows:

Hardin:

Jones, lf 5 1 0 0

Darnall, rf-p 3 1 0 0

Davis, ss 3 1 0 0

The CCC Cubs, cancelled their game which was to have been played at the Bluff on this date. Their pitching staff was unable to be present. Hardin is probably the second best team in the district tournament recently held at Paducah when they held the Paducah Independents for 14 innings before losing the game by 13 runs.

THE CHALLENGE TO YOUTH

In the language of President Roosevelt, these are the days when perhaps youth has a rendezvous with destiny. The world is fast becoming an armed camp, and a world war surpassing in destruction and horrors any calamity which has yet cursed humanity may be in the offing. Two rival cults, Fascism and Communism, are already in deadly rivalry for the mastery. Both are enemies of democracy and religion and all the ideals we most cherish. The propagandist is abroad not only in our own land but throughout the world to mislead the people and to achieve their own selfish ends.

The challenge to youth is to see to it that these and other destructive forces do not prevail; that the inventions of the machine age and the discoveries of science are used for human betterment and not for destructive purposes; that the resources of nature, and the treasures of art are not only preserved but enjoyed by all; that liberty under law and just government "of the people, for the people and by the people shall not perish," that the sanctity of the home, the freedom to worship Almighty God and the consolation of religion may be our heritage forever.

We are about to begin the work of a new college year. Let us dedicate ourselves anew to a nobler service. Let us teach as we have never taught before. As students, let us acquit ourselves like men.

attendance is approximately 12 per cent greater than last year.

On the Sunday which preceded the holiday, 220 persons took the all-day De Luxe Tour of Mammoth Cave—the longest cave trip in the world. On this trip tourists are served a hot meal, at noon or at night, in the famous Snowball Dining Room, 267 feet underground. Radios and a long distance telephone have been installed in this underground dining hall.

Sunday was the biggest single day in the history of Mammoth Cave, according to W. W. Thompson, General Manager of the Mammoth Cave Properties. Tourist

Entire Hoof Lost as Mule Steps in Hole

John Moore, near Crossland, had a mule to lose his complete hoof, neatly stepped from the coffin bone, a week ago last Thursday when the animal stepped into a covered culvert hole about a half mile west of Crossland.

Mr. Moore said that he knew the hole existed in the culvert but that it had been covered with dirt in grading the road.

The animal was a very valuable all-around work mule and was valued by Mr. Moore at $150.00. The hoof was stuck back on and Mr. Moore said the mule got around very well by stepping gingerly on the toe of the hoof.

He has presented a claim to fiscal court for damages and at the last meeting of the court it was passed to the October session. Veterinarians have said that it will be at least 12 months before the animal recovers.

GREENLEAF OUSTED AS CAMPAIGN HEAD

Vego Barnes Named as Democratic Leader in November Drive

FRANKFORT, Ky., Sept. 15.—The Democratic State Central Executive Committee today ousted John J. Greenleaf of Richmond as chairman of the Democratic state campaign and appointed Vego Barnes, postmaster of Hopkinsville, to succeed him.

The vote by which Greenleaf was removed was 35 to 5. Barnes was appointed by a 39 to 1 vote. The committee's action in special session came after a spirited speech by Governor Chandler in which the Chief Executive criticized Greenleaf's verbal thrusts; was going to give Glenn "a hell of a fight," and would, after the present campaign, give his critics an opportunity to attack him on the stump.

"I'll even go to Madisonville or Russellville," he added. Greenleaf was removed from the campaign leadership on the ground he had appointed "known bolters" and opponents of the state administration as county campaign chairmen. His removal came less than two weeks after his appointment, which was made by the state committee on September 3.

The action sets aside all appointments of county chairmen by Mr. Greenleaf.

Clifton Brown Almost Loses Eye in Mishap

Clifton Brown, owner of Brown's Cafe, was fortunate enough to escape serious injury to the sight of his right eye Sunday afternoon when the arm of the pigeon thrower at the Murray Gun Club slipped from his grasp and struck him to the right of the eye cutting a deep gash.

Mr. Brown went out early for sheet shooting and when the regular operator wasn't there volunteered to spring the traps for other shooters. Somehow, the arm slipped from his grasp in pulling it back for springing and hit him in the face.

An unusual feature of the accident was that Mr. Brown's glasses weren't even cracked though the frames were hopelessly twisted by the impact of the blow.

Gough Extends Fast to 40 Days; To Perform at Murray High School Next Tuesday Night

Galen Gough, incomparable man of steel, author and actor. The man who has amazed everyone who knows him by proving his strength of courage and will power in turning "Temperance Advocate" will throw back his cloak of being a temperance lecturer, for one night here at the Murray High School Auditorium Tuesday, September 22, and will perform his many astounding feats of strength. Among the feats we said he would perform in a previous article was in holding up from six to ten men or girls on an iron bar which he holds in his teeth, as illustrated.

Gough has long since been recognized in the field of strong-men as one of the strongest men in the world. Never since the days of the mythical Hercules has a man been talked so much about in the mysterious way that he has gained his strength. From hopeless invalidism as a war veteran, all set up, he returned a wrecked life... only to amaze all his friends and the authorities of the veterans hospital. Today Galen Gough is feared by most all the top notch wrestlers, they have refused to meet him. Galen Gough is undefeated. When boxing with Max Schmeling, Galen received a broken nose, but he kept on until he wound up in a head-lock holding Schmeling with an unbreakable hold. Galen decided that he was a better wrestler than a boxer because of his large physique and he later became a contender for the heavyweight wrestling championship.

After becoming associated with various N. Y. publications in an editorial capacity, Galen entered motion pictures working as an actor playing in several productions. As a result of his fame he became, an advertising specialist and was handling a contract which would have made him independently wealthy. Galen decided to turn down the contract and enter a work which meant less money, but would do his fellowman much good. He became a temperance advocate appearing in churches at the rate of two and three every Sunday. And now upon returning to his home territory famous people and renowned publications including Bernard Macfadden, I. Van Meter, Dr. MacBride, Rev. S. Tinnon, Carl Easton Williams and others associated as publishers, editors, and men of wealth, have extended Galen their willingness to cooperate with him to the fullest extent.

Galen has remained at home even turning down fabulous offers to return to Los Angeles and New York to carry on his advertising exploitation. He has refused all offers and instead is carrying on his program.

He has fasted now for over 27 days and has lost about 26 pounds. He is stronger than he was when he started and will perform feats of strength which he has amazed the strongest. Don't fail to see him here this coming Tuesday at 8 p. m. Admission will be in the reach of everyone and a treat one will never forget. The many churches in which Gough has lectured can now serve to repay him for his work by helping this event to be one of the greatest gatherings ever made in this county. Everyone will want to send Galen on to his work with a send-off which shows the appreciation of our people, proving that they are with a man when a man takes a step for the right purpose and is doing a good work.

We understand that this coming night of entertainment will be one of humorous intent as it is reported that Galen has a way of entertaining that keeps his audience pleased beyond expectation and everyone greatly thrilled until the end of his performance. Galen is extending his fast to 40 days because of his disappointment in not losing weight as fast as he wanted to. Fat of long standing is difficult to dissolve into the system. However, everyone will be eager to see him even on the 32 day of his fast at the High School Tuesday night. Admission to be

COOKING SCHOOL TO OPEN TUESDAY

K-T-Company Offers Free Instruction by Experts Afternoons of Three Days

Murray women are looking forward to the free cooking school to be opened next Tuesday afternoon by the Kentucky-Tennessee Light & Power Co. in the large auditorium just above Parker's Bakery, on West Main street.

The school will be operated in the afternoons only Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, and the most scientific advances of the culinary art will be thoroughly explained and demonstrated by Misses Mulligan and Hardy, of the company's Home Service Department, which is maintained by the company for its patron's benefit without cost to them. The school starts at 2 p. m. each day.

The school conducted here by the company last year was a big success and it is expected that a much larger number will attend this year due to the large and more comfortable quarters and better facilities.

A feature of the school will be the last day when the ladies are invited and urged to send their own cooks to hear explained and see demonstrated not only the best cooking methods but economy in the kitchen.

Free prizes will be given at the end of the school.

Sow Farrows 34 Pigs in Six Months; $123 Realized From Six

John Moore, near Crossland, who reported an unusual piece of bad luck when a valuable mule had a hoof completely stripped last week, reported elsewhere in this paper, has had extremely good luck with a sow during the past six months.

On March 20, the brood sow gave birth to 20 little piglets and on September 7, less than six months later, she farrowed a litter of 18.

Just five months and 10 days after the first litter made its appearance, Mr. Moore sold six of them weighing a total of 1155 lbs. to Aubrey Simmons, in Hazel, for $123.30.

Highway Engineers Honored at Mayfield

MAYFIELD, Ky., Sept. 11.—More than 300 men of Mayfield, Graves and surrounding counties* of the Purchase gathered at the Chester Byrn farm near here last night to fetter Thomas H. Cutler, new chief engineer of the Kentucky Highway Department; Robert Humphreys, commissioner of highways, and three district advisory highway commissioners—Tom Pardue, of Hopkinsville; Zach Justice, of Pikeville; and Herb Smith, of Harlan.

In Magoffin county the sorghum crop will equal the average of the past five years.

Stubblefield Named As Radio Inventor By College Humor

The College Humor, October issue, officially credits Murray's genius with the distinction of demonstrating the first radio broadcast.

In its column, "Don't Be Too Sure About These", on page 46, College Humor gives a "True or False" test with the incorrect statement: "Radio broadcasting is not more than twenty years old."

The correct answer is then recorded on page 62 as follows: "The first radio broadcast was demonstrated by Nathan B. Stubblefield in 1892."

PIE SUPPER

There will be a pie supper at East Shanon school next Saturday night, Sept. 19, for benefit school.

The College Opens

Murray very properly looks forward each year to the resumption of classes and activity at Murray State College. Not only in a business way, but in the social and cultural factors of a community, the college means much to Murray and Calloway county—more perhaps than most of us have ever fully realized.

When the college resumes its work each September there is a noticeable quickening in Murray's pulse. When it closes its work each August there is an evident lessening of our community pace of life.

In every phase of community activity the college is an important factor. It is a place where the pulse of the community is felt. It is a place where the pulse of the community is felt. It is a place where the pulse of the community is felt.

Frankly, the college means much to Murray in a business way. And it is by no means to our detriment that all of us look forward to a part in the pulse of the community. It is a place where the pulse of the community is felt. It is a place where the pulse of the community is felt.

Murray College faces its 15th year with banners flying and hopes high. Dr. James H. Richmond, outstanding in educational circles in the nation, a truly great school executive, is at the helm. Dr. Richmond not only has sound educational ideas and plans but the determination, energy and personality to carry them through to successful culmination.

The institution has the wholehearted support of this entire community. Its battles are our battles and to the victory in each instance it has Murray's enthusiasm and loyalty.

Gus Robbins Leaves Kentucky

Announcement of the purchase of the Hopewell, Virginia, News by A. Robbins, former editor and owner of the Hickman Courier, will be received with wide interest by the Kentucky newspaper fraternity, though the lament is less and loud that such a capable publisher and splendid gentleman as Gus is to be lost to our state.

At Hickman Mr. Robbins made a highly enviable reputation not only as a newspaper editor but as a fine example of an outstanding public-spirited citizen. A gifted writer, Mr. Robbins has turned out much material that has won him national recognition. Possessed of a rich and warm personality he was a favorite at every press meeting.

For seven years in a row he was the president of the West Kentucky Press Association, concurrently serving as a member of the executive committee of the Kentucky Press Association and later progressing through all official channels of that organization to the presidency.

Kentucky Press meetings will not be the same without Gus. And it's too bad that we could not keep him in Kentucky. We commend him to our mother state of Virginia and wish it to treat him well for Gus will at any time find a warm welcome back in his "old Kentucky Home" and if Old Virginia don't do right by our Gus we'll go over there and get him and bring him back home.

Good luck, Gus, and don't forget to come back to see us.

JUST JOTS

By Joe

What to do about the wind is a problem at my desk's new location in the Ledger & Times new home. If I sit in it, it blows away all my papers and if I sit out of it, I shiver. And those who know me know that I can't afford to shiver away much weight or the wind would blow me entirely away.

Nine went sight-seeing in a plane over Pittsburgh and soon were looking at one side or the other of the Hereafter.

An exchange is not worrying over the $1 front-seat drivers' license, but that there isn't a $5 tax on the back-seat drivers.

One of our friends asked us if we were serving refreshments at the "open house" in the new building. We'll serve them at a big party when we get the new building paid for.

High school graduates: Enroll in Murray State College next Monday and be a Thorngrove.

Yes, sir, after all these years thinking Bruce Dudley was one of the best friends I had in the world, that racial has done gone and went and betrayed me.

Nobody knew I had that bald spot in the top of my head (excepting me and the Mrs.) till Bruce let the Courier-Journal photographer along with him. Art, bring that picture in Monday morning's paper.

And to think that I had fed that fellow county fried chicken the very night before he left here.

My picture in Monday's Courier-Journal, alongside Coach Don Edwards as an accompaniment to Bruce Dudley's feature article on the Thorngroves reminds me of a story told on Joe E. Brown, big-mouthed movie comedian. When, for the first time, he saw a 6-foot close-up of himself on the screen, Joe E. jumped up and shouted "It's a lie!"

Gosh, how that bald spot has grown.

Time and tide wait for no man but seemingly hair will fall at any time for most of them.

LETTERS to the Editor

ORPHANS HOME NEEDS AID

The Kentucky Children's Home Society located at Lyndon is facing a very critical situation. This organization is the only non-sectarian group caring for dependent and neglected children from all parts of the state, who are committed by the county judges. It carries on a cooperative program—one in which the state, counties and private individuals combine to give Kentucky's unfortunate children the help which they so sorely need.

The drought has hit our rural areas mightily hard, and this, added to the somewhat abnormal economic conditions brought to Lyndon an unusually large number of children. New commitments have increased and, in addition, many children have been returned because their foster-parents have been unable to keep them. During July and August 127 children came back to our institution from these homes. This is four times the number of children usually returned during a similar period.

These same drought conditions are making it extremely difficult to find homes in which to place children. We are faced, therefore, with a rapidly increasing population and have now reached the

LUMBER

I will be able to furnish all kinds of rough lumber at the ruling market price. Will do custom sawing, hauling your logs to mill, sawing the lumber and hauling lumber to your place of need. Will buy timber delivered to mill or in the woods. Will do custom sawing for a part of the lumber. Your business will be appreciated.

W. D. SYKES.

maximum number which we can care for in the Home. We have 430 children in buildings with a normal capacity of 250. With the exception of the hospital, the baby ward and one other ward, there are two children sleeping in every single bed, and some are sleeping on the floor. Beds are less than one foot apart, when they should be three feet, and in our dormitories there is only 150 cubic inches of air space per child when there should be 600 cubic feet. This, of course, means our children are not able to get the proper amount of fresh air at night. We like to feel that fresh air is free, but our children are being deprived of even this.

To make this situation worse, there are today over 200 children who should be admitted, some committed for the first time and others returned from foster homes.

This crowded situation is made infinitely worse by the presence of 75 to 100 feeble-minded children. One has only to walk through our wards to realize the large proportion in this group. This makes it impossible to formulate a constructive program for our normal children and makes it extremely difficult to treat each child as an individual, as rules must be made under such circumstances primarily for the feeble-minded children could be taken care of elsewhere, we could do much more for the others who are being penalized by their presence.

The institution has never had a school building and now with such a crowded condition, facilities are most inadequate. Children must be crowded into small rooms of a dwelling house and due to the large number which makes it necessary to have more groups than otherwise would be necessary, no child is able to spend the normal and desired amount of time in school. This is all the more deplorable because the children come to us from homes where their education has been sadly neglected. More than any other group of children in the state, they need the very best educational opportunities rather than suffer from such handicaps as are now unavoidable.

To meet this increased demand, our budget has been decreased about $25,000. The General Assembly felt it necessary to reduce our annual appropriation from $100,000 to $80,000 and a further 10 per cent has been given our state's income is sufficient, the latter cut may be made up in the future, but there is no certainty of this and we must therefore plan on a basis of a $19,000 reduction. We are hoping that receipts from counties will not decrease. In addition to this cut, the drought has resulted in a loss of at least $5,000 here at our farm. We have, therefore, this situation to face—a greatly increased number of children and a greatly reduced budget with which to care for them. We will be unable to care for these children adequately unless more money is forthcoming.

It is this dire situation, which has forced us to ask all county judges to write us when they are thinking of committing any children. We will then send out a field worker just as soon as possible who will talk over the whole situation with them. With no more space in our institution, we can accept children only as fast as we can find private homes for children already here. This means that only the neediest cases can be admitted until this congestion is over. We are endeavoring to give the best service we can for the children most in need.

As the new Superintendent, I am anxious to get out in the state and meet with interested individuals and groups. I would welcome opportunities to meet before civic groups, service clubs and other organizations.

We believe if you could really see for yourself these crowded conditions at the Home, you would readily appreciate our extreme need. We are glad to have anyone interested come and see our Home at Lyndon at any time.

Cordially yours,
K. L. Messenger,
Superintendent
Swann Family

Robert Swann, local grocer, visited with relatives and renewed acquaintances in Statesville, N. C., and Iredell county, N. C., collecting quite a bit of family history while on his visit.

In renewing his acquaintances with the North Carolina branch of Swanns, Mr. Swann relates an excellent visit with kinspeople and tells of their genealogy.

Zephaniah Swann, possibly a Revolutionary soldier, and his wife Mary, decided to their son, Thos. C. Swann, 508 acres of land in 1803 on South Yodkin River. He decided him 195 acres more.

Thos. Swann in about 1804 married Elizabeth Holman. There were 5 boys and 5 girls in this family. In 1833, Thos. and Elizabeth with their 10 children sold out in North Carolina and moved over the mountains to Tennessee. After one year in Tennessee they came to Calloway county and bought land near Harris Grove in 1834, 102 years ago. The boys were James, David, John, Manoah and William. The girls were Lucy Hule, Pollie Cain, (these two were married in North Carolina), Anna Benson, Lizzie Jackson, and Martha Myers. David Swann left this county for the California gold fields in 1849 and was never heard from. John Swann was never married. The children of these 8 families now live in Calloway and Graves counties and there are more than a hundred in this group.

North Carolina Swanns
Eneas Swann married Nancy Holman, daughter of David Holman who was a brother of Elizabeth Holman Swann. Eneas and Thos. Swann were near relatives, therefore, these two Swann families were double cousins—Eneas Swann's family in North Carolina, and Thos. Swann's family in Kentucky.

About one year ago I wrote to T. E. Swann at Statesville, N. C., asking him about the relation. After some correspondence he insisted that I come out and see them. I went to his home and he drove me around for four days, seeing the country and the relatives. W. M. Horn, grandson of W. H. D. Turner who bought Thos. Swann's home, showed me the exact site where the house stood.

The South Yodkin River runs East but at the house it runs north. This house was 150 yards from the river and 150 feet from a small branch, near which was the spring. The old house was gone but Mr. Horn has a stock barn built from the logs which were of an exact type. The logs faced one and one-half feet on the bottom row and gradually grew smaller near the top—a 2-story double log house and a back room, making 3 rooms.

We visited Mills Point where we saw his brother, Dr. Joe Swann. He is the first Swann doctor I have seen. He is a fine looking man about 65 years of age. He shows some Holman likeness.

When a certain gentleman saw me he said you are one of these old Holmans like Vassar Swann.

On Sunday all the Swanns in that county came to Thos. Swann's for a reunion. There were 40 Swanns present. They showed much interest in my visit and treated me so cordially that I felt that my trip was a real blessing to me and maybe to them.

These Swanns are industrious and own good farms and appear to be prosperous. I visited T. E. Swann and family as he was the one I corresponded with and by his urgent invitation I made the visit. He was formerly an employee of the railroad but was forced to quit this work on account of his health. Mrs. Swann and the children were very kind to me and I felt very much at home. His daughters called me Uncle Bob.

I visited in the home four days, riding around with Cousin Tommy, eating best of foods prepared by artists, Mrs. Swann and her daughter Ruth. These Swann's, fifth and sixth double cousins, are somewhat like the Swanns here. Robt. Swann.

THE PUBLIC VOICE

Contributions to this column upon topics of interest are always welcome. They do not necessarily express the views of this newspaper.

Murray and Calloway county are proud of the new plant of The Ledger & Times. But few plants, even of dailies, are so well equipped with such a modern plant and job print equipment.

This paper, headed by Joe T. Lovett, has established itself among the leaders of the state press. All who knew the late editor of the West Kentuckian, E. L. McFarland, are grieved in the loss to our town, and admired the fine cooperation between the two papers.

To My Mother

Your body's in a casket of grey,
Your soul's in heaven divine.
We know you are just away,
Until the great end of time.

We have a vision of you,
Upon the tall golden stair,
It is so sweet and true,
That you wait for us up there.

God will help us some how
To be noble, true and brave,
Until the time comes now,
To call us to the grave.

We'll join you there some day
Mother
Where we'll be happy too.
When all of God's light, ray
Shines upon us with you.

Faxon Facts

I loved Chatterbox and Eagle's welcome. I have for long read their columns each week. I admired them so much that a few years ago I entered five clippings from each in a country correspondence contest. I am sure they ranked high among the thousands of entries. I suspect this is news to them.

The sick, I am glad to report, are mostly better. The little Ahart girl is reported as improving slowly but I suppose she is doing as well as can be expected with the dread infantile paralysis.

Monday morning nine neighbors gathered early at H. L. Drennon's, filed to cut his early corn. Mr. Drennon is up and about but is badly afflicted with rheumatism. The men who helped were: Murvin Holland, Otis Hurt, Clyde and Raymond Phelps, Oscar Folwell, Alvin Williams, Buren Folwell, Crawford McClure, and Gardner Ragadsky. Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Walston and Jeanette were week end visitors of his mother.

Mrs. Eddie Billington, Murray, spent most of last week with her mother, Mrs. Betty Colson. Miss Irene Colson spent the week with her sister, Mrs. Reba Folwell.

Last week-end your correspondent experienced one of the joys of teaching in the visit of an admired and admiring pupil. We fraternized and talked shop until Saturday night was almost turned into a slumber party. We have been hearing only the best of reports from patrons of Shady Hill school about the work of Miss Hilda Jones. We are sure that her enthusiasm and hard work will, if continued, be a successful teacher.

This morning and every morning I see little barfoot tracks, and some that are not so little, and slipped tracks marching, marching straight along the dusty road toward school. When I face the eager young faces of a morning, I feel humble and elated at once, and these are the feelings of all teachers. I am sure. Pray for us all you parents and all you friends of the young and of our free country, pray that you and we may ever keep their feet marching forward to lives of service and usefulness, their eager faces toward freedom of the spirit and toward God.—A.H.

Harris Grove

Well here I am again after a few weeks absence to try to write a few items for the Ledger & Times, one of Calloway's leading newspapers.

Aunt Betty Neale remains unimproved with high blood pressure and nervous trouble.

Mrs. Minda Lovier is improving slowly. She received a fall July 30 in which she broke both bones in her left limb just above the ankle.

The farmers in this community have just about completed tobacco cutting and are preparing to sow wheat and grass seed.

Mr. and Mrs. Lenon Hall had as their guests Saturday night and Sunday his sister, Miss Gather Hall of the Edge Hill vicinity.

"Uncle Billy" Jones is suffering from a severe attack of rheumatism.

A truck load of people from here attended the Caldwell family reunion at Metropolis last Sunday. All reported a nice time with plenty to eat.

We surely appreciate the nice school bus from Lynn Grove which takes all the school children of Harris Grove school district to Lynn Grove High School since the consolidation with Lynn Grove school.

Well, so long, until later. Hope we get a good rain which is much needed for pastures and late crops.

Edge Hill News

A very enjoyable program was given Friday afternoon by the pupils of Edge Hill school. Each child carried out their parts splendidly. Quite a few of the parents were present to see the little ones in their plays. Mrs. Eron Story is a very capable teacher and the children are progressing nicely under her supervision.

Mrs. Ed Simpson and mother of Akron, Ohio, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Nat Simpson.

Mrs. Bell Enoch of Lynn Grove is visiting Mrs. Rachel Cole.

There will be preaching services at the home of Robert Adams Friday night. Brother Smith, a Baptist minister of Mayfield, will do the preaching. Everyone is cordially invited to attend.

The Rev. Sammie Hicks preached his farewell sermon at Mt. Pleasant Sunday. He preached "The Sermon on the Mount". Everyone surely enjoyed the sermon.

Mrs. Verba Pittman and little daughter, Betty Pearl, are spending a few weeks in Paris, Tenn.

Mr. and Mrs. Utley Harding and children of near Midway, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Kemp, N. L. Kemp, and Mildred Crittendon of near Murray were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Nat Simpson Sunday.

Woodlawn School News

Nine weeks of our school have passed away, and not a word have we heard as to our success or failure.

Our ball team was defeated Friday afternoon by the fine team from Cherry school. This was a game in which much interest was shown. Everyone wondered till the last just who the winner would be. This was our fourth game of the season.

Our pie supper of September 5th was a great success. We had a large crowd and sold all the way from twenty-five cents to one dollar and seventy cents. We cleared near to $16. We are proud of our new school equipment.

The honor roll for the past month is as follows:

First grade: Dorothy Garland, Billie Guerin and Merel Sills. Second grade: Calvin Hall. Third grade: Rubin Garrison and Charles Pittman.

Fourth grade: Rebecca Coleman, and Don Garrison. Fifth grade: D. V. Outland. Seventh grade: L. E. Outland, Jennie Coleman, Viola Johnson, Hafford Sills, Maudina Garrison, Noble Bray and Argenteen Sills.

We Extend Greetings to Murray State College

It is not in a mere obligation of custom or sense of mere tradition that the Bank of Murray extends a cordial greeting and a hearty welcome to the Murray State Teachers College, its new president, its administrative force, faculty, and last, but not least, its student body, as this grand institution of ours begins its 14th year of service to the people of Western Kentucky.

THOROUGHBREDS PLAN PERFECT SEASON

Murray Intends Record of No Losses on This Year's Schedule of Nine

The Murray State College Thoroughbred football team is in full swing. Practice has been going on for the past two weeks twice daily and although several are out temporarily with minor injuries, the squad is taking shape for the first game here with Georgetown, Friday night, September 23.

Murray needs nine college teams this year and is expecting to complete the schedule with no losses. As Bruce Dudley, of the Courier-Journal, says, "when the doors of nine football teams hear a stout knock knock at their door, and the answer to 'Who's there?' will be Murray, there's plenty to overcome before they are conquerors of the Murray aggregation," if they do.

Murray will encounter Georgetown College, Morehead Teachers, Ouachita College, Arkansas, Mississippi College, Middle Tennessee, Union University, West Tennessee Teachers, Tennessee Tech, and by no means a slight foe, Western of Bowling Green.

Murray's squad of 34 men is fast clicking into the regular Thoroughbred Rascals and when they meet the Georgetown Tigers on Friday night week on the Murray sod, there's bound to be thrills and excitement for all fans.

The Murray squad weighs on an average of 177 pounds, but the boys will pick up about 10 pounds per man by their first game.

Henderson Captain
Julian Henderson, of Fulton, is captain of the team and Bob Miller, of Guthrie, is the alternate captain. Both are backfield men, and they know what to do with the ball when they get it, and what to do when the other side has it. Henderson is a fullback who passes and punts, and who can rip the line. He weighs 202 pounds. Miller, who is a most useful punter, weighs 185 pounds.

Other backfield luminaries are Charley Yarbrough, of Murray; Paul Fowler of Farmington; J. R. Mitchell of Clay; Bob Nunn, of Murray; John Jasper, of Murray; and Bill McRaven, of Hickman. Bill Thompson, Owensboro, and Hugh Finley, Fulton, will call signals.

Edwin Gunter, Paducah; C. W. Hardin, Jellico, and Lyle Putnam, Decatur, Ill., will care for the chores at center. The first two have had the greater experience. Casey Organ, Morganfield; Elmer Cochran, Paducah; Jim Tolson, Murray; Dennis Horlander, Owensboro, and Buster Neece, Hazard, are being trained for guard duty. Cochran and Organ are expected to be in the opening lineup.

Line Coach
Otis Edmonds, of Fulton, is line coach. He weighs 202 pounds. He is a most useful punter, weighs 185 pounds.

'Breds' Mentor

RAY STEWART
Head Coach

Murray is exceptionally strong at tackle, being blessed with "Big Iron" Land, Jellico, and Benny Cook, Paducah.

"I don't know which is the stronger boy, and neither do they," Mr. Stewart says.

Another dandy tackle is Jim Ed Diuguid, Murray. "Dub Russell, Murray; Pete Wright, Fulton, and Russell Snyder, Corbin, are other ball thrill. The Western State Teachers are Murray's keenest rivals, especially at football. Western won last year by 21-6, but that was last year. Also, the game was played at Western. This year, the battle, which is the football classic of Western Kentucky, and one that would enliven any football area anywhere, will be waged on Calloway county turf. And of course there is something in the home track that makes these Thoroughbreds kick up their heels, and footballs, and go "hell bent for

MILLER, Alt-Captain

leather," from goal to goal. Murray Favored This Year
"Suede" Anderson, the coach at Western said he thought the game between Western and Murray this year would be a toss-up with the odds in favor of Murray.

When this information was conveyed to Roy Stewart, the coach at Murray, he snorted, just like a true Thoroughbred, and all-seasoned coaches.

"A toss-up in favor of Murray?" he exclaimed. "Why, Western has lost only three men from last year. We have lost thirteen, and that's an unlucky number. Western has a much better chance to beat us this year than it had last year, and it beat us last year."

"However," and here's the bad news, boys—"Murray will have a better team this year than it had last year, and we are not going to make any slips in the Western game. We intend to win. We expect a bruising battle, but, I repeat, we intend to win."

The two teams have played five games, beginning with the start of the Stewart regime in 1931, and Western has triumphed in three of the tests, but Western has tallied only one more point in the series, the total scores being 54 for Western and 33 for Murray.

With such an assistant, as Don Edmonds, who was an Indiana fullback and a star at that, Coach Stewart can truthfully say his boys would get the training, even if they should fail to produce when called on at the turf classics.

Of course Freshman Coach John Miller will be training the yearlings into varsity material for next year's squad. His freshman schedule has not been completely arranged as yet, but he expects to have an excellent squad. Possibly as good as that of 1931.

Murray's schedule follows:
September 23—Georgetown, here.
October 3—Morehead, away.
October 10—Ouachita, here.
October 17—Mississippi C., here.
October 23—Middle Tennessee, away.
October 30—Union U., away.
November 7—West Tenn., away.
November 13—Tenn. Tech., away.
November 21—Western, here.

Murray had an enrollment of 89 for its first semester in 1923-24 when Rainey T. Wells opened the school. The enrollment today is 1,000.

It will be noted most of Murray's football hearties have come from this section, which is known as the purchase, and these chaps, say, as Colonel Dick Calloway would have said, "We are going to get a puschab on Western this year and prize it loose from the K. I. A. C. football championship."

GUNTER, Center

HEALTH AND HAPPINESS BY GALEN GOUGH

Formerly Director, Physical Culture Macfadden Publications, Inc., Health Editor Psychology Magazine, New York

Evening Graphic. Author of Health Psychology, etc. (Written Exclusively for the Ledger & Times)

Fat of long standing is difficult to dissolve into the system. Because of this I am extending my fast to 40 days. It seems that the first few days of a fast takes away the surplus fat and leaves the remaining hardened tissue to dissolve slowly without injurious effect . . . because the fact remains if one lost too rapidly then the system would be weakened. Nature undoubtedly takes care of the system in this respect. Again in my particular case I have fasted most every year for the past 10 years and in all this time I have never really gotten rid of some of the fat which I possessed. Strange as it seems year by year my fatty tissues have hardened. In fact to the point where some of the fat has become as hard as muscle even forming a gristle effect. I actually believe that I could live for 50 days without ill effect and would remain as strong as ever until the 60th day of fast. In the past week I haven't lost over a half pound a day . . . which is a natural result in such cases. Yet I have possibly taken more water than the average three men. Water has sustained my vigor and even the saccharine and artificial fruit flavors of cold drinks have added to make me hold my own. This merely goes to prove how little the system requires when it comes to food. How few realize the importance of eating less. We all eat twice too much and if analyzed properly we really eat about three times as much as we should.

Fasting for strength is a natural course in the fleshy person. I am no exception. Everyone could gain more strength if they fasted, provided they had too much excess fat to begin with. As I said before by ridding the body of excess fat one gives the muscles more freedom of activity. Soon I will perform here, possibly next week end, Thursday or Friday. In my performance I will astonish everyone with feats of strength which would normally amaze them regardless of the fact whether I did them or not with or without food. However, there is one thing evident and that is that in performing the feats I will be more active and at ease in my performance than I would have with a lot of fat and food in my body. I will perform the feats without strain. If you want to have a few thrills then don't fail to see me as I shall do my best to entertain you beyond your greatest expectation. Seeing is believing and if in my performance you are bewildered too much, then I'll do my best to explain the particular feat which may astound you. Nothing is impossible under the sun and while the most difficult will be accomplished I assure you that there isn't anything I shall do but what you could also do if properly trained.

Faxon won its second softball game of the season Friday against Hazel by a score of 10-5. Hicks pitched for Hazel and allowed the Cardinals 9 hits. A home run by Gantt, a double by Falwell, and seven singles, aided by several errors, produced the ten runs. Williams pitched six innings for Faxon allowing five hits. Thompson pitched the last inning and allowed only one hit. Williams and Hicks each struck out one batter and neither granted a pass. Thompson played left field for Barnett for the first six innings.

After the high school game the Faxon independents downed the Hazel Independents by a score of 5-3.

Because of trouble about the tickets Mr. Walston will not take his judging team to the State Fair, as formerly announced.

The student body was divided in two different groups last week, by two of our senior boys, Wayne Dyer and Wilson Gantt. The officers that were elected on Wayne's society were:

President, Wayne Dyer; vice-president, Adan Williams; secretary, Rubene Roberts; treasurer, Talmadge Burke; editor, Virginia Collier; sponsor, Mr. Walston; program committee, Voris Parker; Imogene Harris and Hilda Colson.

The officers that were elected on Wilson's society were as follows:

President, Wilson Gantt; vice-president, Justina Roberts; secretary, Anne Henslee; treasurer, Rex Falwell; editor, James Brandon; sponsor, Mrs. Jones, sergeant-at-arms, Robert Bess; program committee, Anne Henslee, Nannie Burken and Rex Falwell.

We have not as yet chosen a name for the societies but will be published later.

The teachers of this section of the county will meet at Faxon at 4 o'clock Monday afternoon to work out plans for the Fair which will be held October 16.

First and Second Grade

Miss Farmer was here Friday. She explained to the children the importance of attending school every day. The first grade is making a border for the black board, made up of Mother Goose figures. The second grade is making a health booklet in connection with their posters for the fair.

Third and Fourth Grade

The truant officer visited the third and fourth grade room last week and made a talk on the importance of regular attendance. Several pupils were absent last week. The two grades have been bringing in materials for their construction work. Several students have made attractive portfolios. The third grade has planned a health booklet. The fourth grade is now working on an English booklet.

Fifth and Sixth Grade

We have been very busy this week preparing for the fair. We have most of the things finished for our room. We are very glad to have Dorothy Wells and Marie Ellis back. We hope that they can come every day. We have been taking tests this week. The truant officer visited our room last Friday. She insisted on every one being present at school every day. We are sorry that Miss Emma Keel's mother is very ill again and she is absent from school, although we are very proud to have Miss Irene Brandon with us, who is teaching in Miss Keel's place.

Kirksey School News

The Lynn Grove softball team met our team here Friday. The scores were 7-8 in favor of Kirksey. We have a game scheduled with Hazel boys and girls Wednesday afternoon.

Clubs were organized last week. We now have the 4-H Club, F. F. A., Campfire Girls, and a health club. The Campfire Girls, under the leadership of Miss Erwin, went on a hike Thursday to Backsburg spring. Everyone enjoyed themselves very much.

Galen Gough, the world's strong man, will be here Saturday night, September 19, for a regular performance featuring his feats of strength. He was present Friday morning at chapel and gave a fine lecture on "The Needs of Education."

There will now be reading material for all since the school library has subscribed for the following magazines and newspapers for the school year: News Week, Literary Digest, American Boy, Readers Digest, Hygia, School Activities, Poplar Science, Vital Speeches of the Day, The Sun-Democrat and The Courier Journal. This was made possible by the splendid cooperation of the student body in contributing 25c each for the purpose.

We wish to thank the editors of The Ledger & Times and The West Kentuckian for giving the school subscriptions to their newspaper.

Work has been started on the musical comedy, "Cupid Up To Date," under the direction of Miss Rebecca Kelly, a director for the Wayne P. Sewell Co. of Atlanta. This play will be given Saturday night, September 26. Don't forget the date.

The total enrollment climbed to 203 when Sylvia Nell Lawrence entered the ninth grade last Friday.

Not Everybody in Calloway county subscribes to the Ledger & Times but nearly everybody reads it!
